

REYNOLDS CONSUMER PRODUCTS INC.

Corporate Governance Guidelines

Amended April 29, 2026

1. Size and Composition of the Board and Board Membership Criteria; Director Qualifications

The Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of Reynolds Consumer Products Inc. (the "Company") shall recommend to the Board of Directors (the "Board") criteria for Board membership, which shall include the criteria set forth in these Corporate Governance Guidelines, and shall recommend individuals for membership on the Company's Board of Directors. In making its recommendations, the Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall:

- review candidates' qualifications for membership on the Board (including making a specific determination as to the independence of the candidate) based on the criteria approved by the Board (and taking into account the enhanced independence, financial literacy and financial expertise standards that may be required under law or Nasdaq rules for audit committee and compensation committee membership purposes);
- evaluate current directors for re-nomination to the Board; and
- periodically review the composition of the Board in light of the current challenges and needs of the Board and the Company, and determine whether it may be appropriate to add or remove individuals after considering issues of judgment, diversity, age, skills, background and experience.

The Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers not only an individual's qualities, performance and professional responsibilities, but also the then composition of the Board and the challenges and needs of the Board at that time. The Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also considers the impact of any change in the principal occupation of existing directors. The Committee reports to the full Board its conclusions and recommendations for nominations to the Board.

Board Size

The Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall periodically review the size of the Board and recommend any proposed changes to the Board.

Independence

The Board shall affirmatively determine the independence of each director and consider all factors relevant in determining whether the individual has a relationship to the Company that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director. In determining which members of the Board are “independent,” the Board shall use the definition contained in the rules of Nasdaq as in effect from time to time. The Board shall make an affirmative determination at least annually as to the independence of each director. Upon the Company no longer qualifying as a “controlled company” pursuant to the rules of Nasdaq, a majority of the Board shall be comprised of directors meeting the independence requirements of Nasdaq at a minimum.

Term Limits

It is the policy of the Board to avoid term limits which have the disadvantage of discontinuing the availability and contributions of directors who have developed experience with, and insight into, the Company and its needs over a period of time.

Retirement Age

It is the policy of the Board to avoid a mandatory retirement age for directors which would have the disadvantage of discontinuing the availability and contributions of directors who are otherwise capable and valuable members of the Board.

Simultaneous Service on Other Public Company Boards

A director must notify the Chair of the Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee prior to accepting any invitation to serve on another public company board or not-for-profit/tax-exempt board or with a government or advisory group that is expected to require significant commitments of time, in order for the Company to confirm the absence of any actual or potential conflict of interest.

Without the consent of the Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, a non-employee director may not serve on more than five public company boards, including the Company’s Board, and a non-employee director who is also the chief executive officer of another public company may not serve on more than three public company boards, including the Company’s Board.

Employee directors may not serve on more than three public company boards, including the Company’s Board.

Changes in Primary Employment

If a director significantly changes his or her primary employment during his or her tenure, that director must offer to tender his or her resignation to the Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall evaluate the continued appropriateness of Board membership under the new circumstances and make a recommendation to the Board as to any action to be taken with respect to such offer.

Conflicts of Interest

If an actual or potential conflict of interest develops because of a change in the business of the Company, or in a director's circumstances (for example, significant and ongoing competition between the Company and a business with which the director is affiliated), the director should report the matter immediately to the Chair of the Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee for evaluation and appropriate resolution.

If a director has a personal interest in a matter before the Board or any committee thereof, the director shall disclose the interest to the full Board or committee, shall recuse himself or herself from participation in the discussion and shall not vote on the matter.

2. Director Responsibilities

The Board acts as the ultimate decision-making body of the Company and advises and oversees management, who are responsible for the day-to-day operations and management of the Company. In fulfilling this role, each director must act in what he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the Company and must exercise his or her business judgment.

Participation at and Preparation for Board Meetings

The Company expects directors to be active and engaged in discharging their duties and to keep themselves informed about the business and operations of the Company. Directors are expected to attend all Board meetings and the meetings of the committees on which they serve (in each case, either in person or by telephone) and to prepare themselves for these meetings. Directors are also encouraged to attend the Company's annual meeting with shareholders.

In order for the Board to exercise fully its oversight functions, management provides the Board with access to information regarding the Company and the markets in which the Company operates. This information comes from a variety of sources, including management presentations and reports about the performance and operations of the business, security analysts' reports, competitive and peer companies' information, interaction with senior management at Board meetings and visits to Company facilities. Any written materials that assist directors in preparing for a Board or committee meeting shall be distributed to the directors in advance of the meeting, to the extent possible, and directors are expected to review such materials prior to the meeting.

3. Board Agenda

The Chair of the Board, in conjunction with the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), who may be the same person, establishes on an annual basis an agenda of topics for consideration and review by the Board to be addressed during the following year. This annual schedule of topics is then provided to the full Board for review and comment and is adjusted, as appropriate, during the year. The Chair of the Board, in conjunction with the CEO, shall determine the frequency and length of Board meetings and shall set the agenda for each Board meeting. Board members are encouraged to suggest the inclusion of additional items on an agenda, and any director may request that an item be placed on an agenda.

4. Leadership of the Board

The Board believes it is important to retain its flexibility to allocate the responsibilities of the offices of the Chair of the Board and CEO in any way that is in the best interests of the Company at a given point in time. The Board shall determine the leadership structure of the Board from time to time. The Board shall choose its chair based upon the Board's view of what is in the best interests of the Company at any given point in time, based on the recommendation of the Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Therefore, the Board does not have a policy on whether or not the role of the Chair of the Board and CEO should be separate or combined and, if it is to be separate, whether the Chair of the Board should be selected from the non-employee directors or be an employee.

In order to facilitate communication between management and the independent directors, in the event that the Chair of the Board is not an independent director, the Board should elect an independent director as the "Lead Director," who will have the responsibility to schedule, prepare for and lead meetings of the independent directors. The Lead Director will communicate with the CEO, disseminate information to the rest of the Board in a timely manner and raise issues with management on behalf of the independent directors when appropriate.

5. Meetings of Independent Directors

The Company's independent directors shall regularly schedule executive sessions in which non-independent directors do not participate. Such executive sessions shall occur at least twice per year in connection with a regularly scheduled Board meeting, or more often as determined appropriate by the independent directors.

6. Board Committees

The Board shall have at all times an Audit Committee and a Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Subject to any changes that the Board may make from time to time:

- the Audit Committee shall generally be responsible for overseeing the integrity of the Company's financial statements, its independent auditor, its internal audit function, compliance by the Company with legal and regulatory requirements, and evaluation of enterprise risk issues; and
- the Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall generally be responsible for overseeing the Company's executive compensation and benefits policies, overseeing director compensation, evaluating executive officer performance and compensation, reviewing and approving (or for CEO and CFO, recommend to the full Board for approval) any compensatory contracts or similar transactions or arrangements with current, former or prospective Section 16 Officers, reviewing the Company's management succession plan, identifying qualified Board candidates, recommending director nominees and appointments to Board committees, evaluating Board performance, reviewing shareholder proposals and certain proxy and 10-K disclosures related to compliance and corporate governance, and overseeing the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines.

Each of the Audit Committee and Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall operate pursuant to its own written charter. These charters shall, among other things, set forth the purpose, goals and responsibilities of the particular committee, the procedures for committee member appointment and removal and committee structure and operations, as well as reporting to the Board. The charters shall also provide for the periodic evaluation of each committee's performance.

Committee members shall be appointed by the Board based upon the recommendation of the Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, except for the Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, which is directly appointed by the Board.

The Board may, from time to time, establish or maintain additional committees as it deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company.

While the rotation of committee members at certain set intervals should be considered periodically, rotation is not required because the Board believes there are significant benefits attributable to continuity and experience gained in service on a particular committee over time.

7. Board Member Access to Management and Independent Advisors

Board members shall have access to the management and employees of the Company and to its internal and outside counsel and auditors. Any meetings or contacts that a director wishes to initiate may be arranged through the CEO or the Secretary.

Executive officers and other members of senior management are expected to be present at Board meetings at the invitation of the Board. The Board encourages senior management to make presentations and to invite to Board meetings managers and other employees who can provide additional insight into the items being discussed.

The Board and each of its committees in accordance with its charter is authorized to hire independent legal, financial or other advisors as they may consider necessary, without conferring with or obtaining the approval of management or, in the case of committees, the full Board in accordance with its charter, for which the Company shall pay the fees and expenses.

8. Director Communications with Third Parties

Unless otherwise indicated in these Guidelines or the Company's policies, all requests for communications with individual directors or the Board by shareholders, analysts, or media outlets shall initially be made to the Corporate Secretary. Generally, management speaks for the Company, and the Chair speaks on behalf of the Board. Other communications between individual directors and interested parties may be held, at the request of the Board or the CEO and Chair.

9. Director Compensation

The Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall review and recommend to the Board for approval, compensation (including equity-based compensation) for the Company's directors. In so reviewing and recommending for approval by the Board director compensation, the Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall, among other things, determine any long-term incentive component of director compensation based on the awards given to directors in past years, the Company's performance, shareholder return and the value of similar incentive awards relative to such targets at comparable companies and such other factors as the Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company (including the cost to the Company of such compensation).

10. Director Orientation and Continuing Education

All new members of the Board are required to participate in the Company's orientation program for directors. The orientation program will include discussions with and presentations by senior management and, where practicable, visits to the Company's facilities, and provide new directors with a review of the Company's financial position, an overview of the industry in which the Company operates and competes and an introduction to the regulatory and legal environment that affects the Company's business, as well as governs directors' fiduciary duties.

All directors will be offered the opportunity, and are encouraged, to participate in continuing education programs with any associated expenses to be reimbursed by the Company.

11. Management Evaluation and Management Succession

The Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall evaluate the performance of the senior management of the Company and shall present its findings to the full Board. The Board shall review the Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee's report in order to ensure that management's performance is satisfactory and that management is providing the best leadership for the Company in the long and short-term.

The Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall review and report to the Board on the Company's succession planning, including succession planning in the case of the incapacitation, retirement or removal of the CEO. The CEO shall provide an annual report to the Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee recommending and evaluating potential successors, along with a review of any development plans recommended for such individuals. The CEO shall also provide to the Board, on an ongoing basis, his or her recommendation as to a successor in the event of an unexpected emergency.

12. Annual Performance Evaluation

The Board, led by the Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, shall establish and conduct a periodic self-evaluation to determine whether it and its committees are functioning effectively. The collective evaluation shall be presented by the Chair of the Board to the full Board for discussion.
